

1- Who should I contact for assistance when death is imminent in my family?

- It is the responsibility of the survivors of a deceased person to arrange the funeral. For complete funeral services, please contact Muslim funeral service AS on +47 96 964 740.

2. What is an Islamic funeral?

- The main rituals of preparing the body for an Islamic burial are: wash (Gusl), enshrouding (Kafan), transportation of the body first to a mosque for the funeral prayer (salat ul janzah) and then to a Muslim cemetery in Norway or abroad. Afore-mentioned rituals are performed according to Islamic law.

3. Do I need to fill out any forms?

- We take care of this and provide full assistance.

4- Who is responsible for transportation of the deceased to and from the hospital, the mosque and the Muslim cemetery / outside Norway?

- We are responsible for arranging all the transportation carried to and from hospital, home, laundry, mosque and cemetery. For transportation outside Norway freight charges will be charged accordingly.

5- Is it allowed to bury in another municipality than Municipality of residence in Norway?

- Yes, it is possible against extra charges as per requirement from a desired municipality.

6- Who arranges the bathing (Ghusal) and enshrouding (Kafan) of the deceased?

- We provide the following: washing room, washing kit (towel, kafoor, zamzam, cotton, Q-tips, gloves, apron, soap, etc.) and kafan.

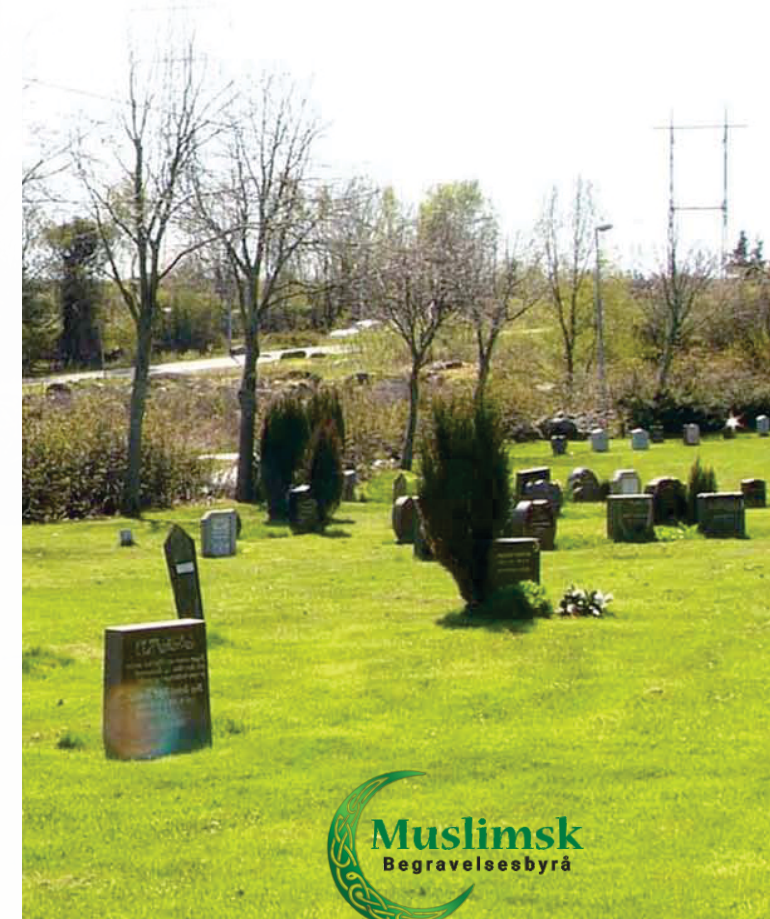

Muslim funeral service AS also provide the Islamic grave stones at competitive prices. The deceased name, date of birth and death are inscribed on it. One can also order to inscribe a desired text in any language on to it including a verse from Quran and Kalima.

For more information please contact us.

Muslimsk Begravelsesbyrå

A qualified and comprehensive Islamic funeral service provider in Norway

To suffer the loss of someone dear to you is a difficult experience. Whether the death is sudden or expected, nothing can prepare you for the emotions that follow. When the death is imminent it is the responsibility of the near relatives to arrange the funeral of the deceased.

Muslimsk begravelsesbyrå AS offers a discrete support and guidance to arrange the Islamic funeral according to the laws of Islam.

With reference to the other religions and beliefs, the Islamic funeral rituals are different in terms of preparing the body for burial, rituals before burial and burial itself.

Our experienced professionals take care of all the processes involved in an Islamic burial with care. We provide all the necessary transportation for the deceased in Norway all the way to graveyard in Norway. In cases where it is desired to transfer the deceased to a land of your ancestry, we offer full assistance and transportation to the airport in Norway.

Our experienced professionals provide the following services.

- 24 hours mobile phone service - (+47) 96 96 47 40
- Bathing the deceased (Ghusal)
- Enshrouding according to the teachings of Sunnah (Kafan)
- Coordinating with the mosque, cemetery and other public authorities
- Transportation of the deceased inside Norway and arrangements for abroad.
- Notifications to the public authorities in Norway
- Advertising on facebook and sms
- Offering courses on Islamic Funeral
- Flowers
- Headstones

